April 10, 1929.

The Attorney General of the United States,
Department of Justice,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

In the Boston Post of March 19, 1929, former Mayor James M. Curley, of Boston, is quoted as saying "at the behest of two men, whose treasonable activities during the World War were a subject of investigation by the Federal Department of Justice, John Trevor and Demarest Lloyd ***"

This false and infamous charge having been given wide publicity in the press and being particularly offensive inasmuch as I entered the service of the United States in November, 1917, was commissioned First Lieutenant in the Army in May, 1918, promoted to the rank of Captain, U.S.A., in October, 1918, to take rank from September 3rd., honorably discharged June 9, 1919 and decorated with the Legion of Honor by General Nivelle for meritorious services rendered in the common cause, may I ask if you will be good enough to have a search made of the files of your Department and advise me whether or not there is any record of an investigation of my activities having been made of any kind whatsoever.

Very respectfully yours,

(signed) John B. Trevor.

Dear Sir:

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your communication of April 10th. I note therein statement alleged to have been made by former Mayor James M. Curley, of Boston, to the effect that "At the behest of two men, whose treasonable activities during the World War were a subject of investigation by the Federal Department of Justice, John Trevor and Demarest Lloyd".

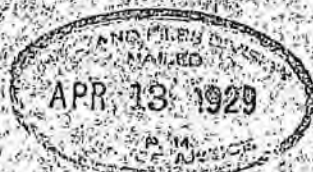

A search of all files under the jurisdiction of this Department has been made and nothing whatsoever was found therein which would indicate that you have been the subject of investigation by representatives of this Department in any manner or form, nor has any reference been found therein to any activities on your part which could, in any way, directly or indirectly, be considered as dishonorable or improper.

Very truly yours,

Result of examination:

It was concluded that specimens Q1 through Q4 were prepared on typewriters equipped with Underwood Pica Style of Type spaced ten letters per inch. It was further concluded that the envelope and letter Q1 and Q2 were prepared on a different machine from the letter and envelope Q3 and Q4. It was further concluded that the letter Q4 was not prepared on the machine used to prepare the envelope Q3.

The letter Q2 contains the letterhead of "Eugenics Society of Northern California, Capital National Bank Building, Sacramento, California" and the letter Q4 is on the letterhead of [redacted] Capital National Bank Building, Sacramento, California. These specimens were searched through the National Security File without effecting an identification. Appropriate photographic copies will be added for reference purposes.

Unless otherwise advised, the submitted evidence is being retained.

July 1, 1943

Director, FBI

Dear Sir:

[redacted] for the Buffalo Evening News, called at the Buffalo Field Division on July 1, 1943 and left two letters received by his paper, which may have some significance in connection with subversive activities.

The first letter is postmarked at Sacramento, Calif., June 25, 1943, is addressed to "Editor, News, 216 Main Street, Buffalo, New York," and bears no return address. The enclosure is on the letterhead of [redacted] Capital National Bank Building, Sacramento, California, and is addressed to, "Editor, News, 801 Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas." The substance of the letter raises a question as to, "How do we know our Democracy could survive a World War III"?

The second letter was received in an envelope bearing the postmark Sacramento, Calif., June 26, 1943, addressed to "Editor, News, 216 Main Street, Buffalo, New York," and bearing no return address. It is interesting to note that the two envelopes, in which these letters were received, appear to be identical. The second letter, however, is on the letterhead of EUGENICS SOCIETY OF NORTHERN CALIFORNIA, Capital National Bank Bldg., Sacramento, California, and is signed by [redacted] of that organization, in which he raises the possibility of hysterical demands for "More Babies and forget Quality Standards."

Although the letters in themselves raise no suggestion of subversive activity, it is significant to note that the envelopes in which the letters were sent appear to be identical and may be connected with some organizational activity aimed at bringing to the attention of the public, through the press, questions intended to distract the attention of the public from the war effort.

RECORDED & INDEXED

These letters are being forwarded to the Bureau for such attention as may be considered appropriate, inasmuch as no previous information of this character has been received in this office.

Captain John B. Trevor called from New York City on the 18th and said he did not want to bother you but had some information he thought might be of interest to our New York Office. Captain Trevor advised that an interior decorator, who is Belgian born but a naturalized citizen of the USA and has done work for him over a period of years, has told him and [redacted] of "some suspicious activities of persons." This decorator is very apprehensive of having anyone know he is giving information to the FBI as he has quite a number of foreigners working in his establishment. Captain Trevor asked that someone from our New York Office contact [redacted] at Captain Trevor's home, 11 East 91st Street, New York City, at which time she will furnish all the information they have received from the decorator on the matter.

ACTION:

The New York Office has been instructed to have [redacted] interviewed immediately and to institute any investigation which might be justified on the basis of the interview. There is attached for your approval a letter to Captain Trevor.

REMARKS

[Redacted] stated that he had a letter of introduction to Mr. Hoover from Captain John B. Trevor of New York City, and would like to have an appointment with the Director at his convenience. He said the purpose of the appointment would be mainly to get acquainted with the Director.

[Redacted] further stated that he was formerly a Colonel in the Army and had worked with the Bureau in various parts of the country.

[Redacted] indicated that he will reside permanently at the above address, and would appreciate being called relative as to whether Mr. Hoover will be able to see him. He said that he intends to be out of town on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday of this week, but any other time that is convenient with the Director will be fine with him.

Gentlemen:

After reading "Meditations of Joseph Stalin" by Emile E. Watson, the thought came to me, why don't the many patriotic organizations pool their finances, resources, material and manpower and really destroy Socialism and Communism in America.

Many of we individuals are spending several hundred dollars a year in doing our bit but we are not getting full value received and not reaching the masses. Furthermore, we are always under attack especially in our local community.

Our greatest threat is in our school text-books and classrooms. Why allow our children to be indoctrinated for twelve or fourteen years with this foreign philosophy and then try to un-poison their minds. Let's remove the poisonous weeds so that the children cannot become contaminated.

A weekly TV program must be on the air with speakers, such as: professors, teachers, students, law enforcement agencies, security agencies, former communists, judges, etc. The subversive text-books, progressive education and academic freedom must be exposed to show the parents that their children are being trained but not educated.

We should have panel questioning of high school students, discussions on arithmetic, history, geography and spelling. This would not be embarrassing to the children because they think no one knows the answers if they (the students) don't. This would answer many parents question, "When will my child learn to read." Paragraphs from text books should be read so the tax paying parents could get a comparison of the books today and what they were twenty five years ago. re

This letter is going to thirteen patriotic organizations and I hope someone will take the lead because unless we do this we may all perish separately. Free enterprise and capitalism must be the bulwark of our Country. Once this program is started I'm positive industry will pour money into the treasury.

TAX PAYING PARENTS:

During the past twenty years text-books have been written, rewritten and revised in accordance with the philosophy of the times. The New Deal Fair Deal has been instrumental in this indoctrination of creeping Socialism and collectivism into our minds, lives and school text-books.

Many books have been purchased by school boards strictly on the authors reputation prior to 1930 and are not now aware that they propagandize collectivism and socialism. This propaganda poisons the child's fertile mind against free enterprise, individualism and patriotism. They teach that the government must own, operate and control everything even the minds and lives of the citizens. World citizenship rather than American citizenship is being promoted by some so called educational organizations.

~~We cannot wait for the pendulum of thought to swing back to pre-new-deal democracy.~~ We now have a twenty year age span of children and countless adults who believe in government domination and all-out security from the cradle to the grave. This country cannot progress under this foreign socialistic philosophy. We must develop theists, leaders, statesmen, scientists, engineers, chemists, metallurgists, doctors and teachers to carry on the great task before us. This cannot be done under the social ideology of progressive education. The 3 R's must be reinstated which through 175 years of experience has made America the arsenal of production, the bulwark of democracy and the haven of free men.

The following are excerpts from six text-books now in use in Virginia schools:

Social Living - by Landis & Landis

Page 168 - "More and more we are looking to the government to provide the kind of protection and services required to guarantee the masses of citizens, food, shelter, and health, as well as political freedom."
Here is how we are "Served" by a "Strong" government: "Government not only regulates us, but also serves us. The things that we pay for with taxes are provided by government and usually are provided more cheaply than they could be by private persons." (p.176)
"In a capitalistic system wealth tends to gravitate into the hands of large corporations or of very successful individuals." (p.172)

The Building of Our Nation - by Barker, Commager, Webb

"The Constitution is all a compromise" (p.72); "child labor is our most glaring evil" (p.560); "immigration tended to lower the American standard of living (p.543), but later immigrants are raising the standard of living." "Sick benefits, pensions and workmen's compensation cannot be won in individual industries" (p.559). "The Constitution gave the Federal government general powers." (p.362). Page 212, 215-6 - "The Supreme Court was established to strengthen the Federal government and nationalism. Nationalism is not patriotism."

A History of Our Country - by D. S. Muzzey

Page 240 - The motto of the Republic is Liberty, Democracy and Union. The influx of immigrants then brought about the rise of the common man. Many slanted phrases are used throughout this book such as "Aristocratic pretensions" "The laboring classes in industrial centers" "The rise of the common man" "The rule of the people."

Your Life in A Democracy - Revised. - by Howard E. Brown

"Much of the credit for protecting us so well from contagion belongs to the Federal government". The Federal government contributes money for State and local services. Only the citizens contribute to the cost of government. "After man had learned to live in communities he found cooperation on a widening-scale-could-be-carried-out-only-by introducing more-and-more government into his social system."

Modern Economics (Revised Edition) - by James F. Corbett & Minna Colvin

Page 557 - "The following pages outline a program for economic planning in America." "The entire plan is based upon the assumption that the basic principles of democracy and capitalism will be retained." "The student is encouraged to reject, modify or supplement any of the suggestions." "Approximate estimates prepared by the Federal Trade Commission tend to show that 1 per cent of the people own 59 per cent of the wealth or property of the country." (p.401).

American Government - by Frank Abbott Magruder

"Suffrage and personal liberty are inconsistent in a democracy." (p.643). The author replaces old personal liberties with new civil liberties, (p.644). The old liberties encourage ignorance, disease, crime and political dishonesty. The remedy is compulsion. The Russian veto is merely Russia's "safeguard for her minority views on basic matters concerning which the democratic nations would overwhelmingly outvote her." (p.714).

All persons or organizations interested in abolishing subversion from our schools please write and have others write me so we can petition our State Representatives to take appropriate action.

Dear Sir:

In my last letter to the readers, space didn't allow page numbers or excerpts from the six books which are slanted toward collectivism and socialism.

Social Living — by Landis and Landis, Page 163, "More and more we are looking to the government to provide the right of protection and services required to guarantee the masses of citizens food, shelter, and health, as well as political freedom."

Here is how we are "served" by a "strong" government: "Government not only regulates us, but also serves us. The things that we pay for with taxes are provided by government and usually are provided more cheaply than they could be by private persons." (p. 170) "In a capitalistic system wealth tends to gravitate into the hands of large corporations or of very successful individuals." (p. 172)

The Building of Our Nation — by Barker, Cummings, Webb, "The Constitution is not a compromise" (p. 12); "child labor is our most glaring evil" (p. 569); "immigration tended to lower the American standard of living (p. 543), but later immigrants are raising the standard of living"; "Sick benefits, pensions and workmen's compensation cannot be won in individual industries" (p. 559); "The Constitution gave the Federal government general powers" (p. 562), Page 812, 815-6; "The Supreme Court was established to strengthen the Federal government and nationalism. Many slanted phrases are used throughout this book such as "Aristocratic pretensions" "The laboring classes in industrial centers" "The rise of the common man" "The rule of the people."

Your Life in a Democracy — Revised — by Howard E. Binns: "Much of the credit for protecting us so well from contagion belongs to the Federal government." The Federal government contributes money for State and local services. Only the citizens contribute to the cost of government. "After men had learned to live in communities he found cooperation on a widening scale could be carried out only by introducing more and more government into his social system. "Most of the grumbling over taxes" is not meant too seriously. . . . Most citizens realize that they get far more for their money when it is combined with that of other citizens and spent to advance the general welfare than they could possibly get from spending it as individuals."

Modern Economics (Revised Edition) — by James P. Corbett & Minna Colvin, Page 557, "The following pages outline a program for economic planning in America." "The entire plan is based upon the assumption that the basic principles of democracy and capitalism will be retained." "The student is encouraged to reject, modify or supplement any of the suggestions." "Approximate estimates prepared by the Federal Trade Commission tend to show that one per cent of the people own 50 per cent of the wealth or property of the country." (p. 461).

America's Government — by Abbott Muzzey, "Suffrage and personal liberty are inconsistent in a democracy." (p. 643). The author replaces old personal liberties with new civil liberties, (p. 644). The old liberties encourage ignorance, disease, crime and political dishonesty. The remedy is communism. The Russian vein is merely Russia's "lifeguard for her minority views on basic matters concerning which the democratic nations would overwhelmingly outvote her." (p. 714).

Dear Sir:

I was amazed and amused at the article in your newspaper recently, "W & L students to get course in Communism."

Why tell the gullible tax-paying parents at this late date. You might wake them up and might realize they have been supplying the children (gulping pigs) and the money for carrying on the propaganda and experiment of the New Social Order.

As for the lack of literature in the schools on Russia and her leaders, please refer to the Encyclopedia Britannica Vol. 18, 1950, page 682, also Encyclopedia Americana Vol. 27, 1951 and if you want some slanted collectivist, socialistic books then read the following books which are in the Arlington schools: Social Living — The Building of Our Nation — Modern Economics — Your Life in a Democracy — American Government — History of Our Country. Space does not allow for page numbers or excerpts from these books. I haven't found an anti-Russian, pro-American book in our schools except the one I donated to the library, "Understanding Our Free Economy", however, there are many available and they should replace the above listed books unless you desire a socialistic state.

As for research kindly study the comparison charts, which I donated to the Arlington schools, "Before Urging Change in Our Form of Government." You don't need a staff of instructors to study and understand these charts.

If you desire an innovation why not inaugurate a course in Americanism and include a study of the history of the United States and the leaders who built this wonderful nation. Why spend time and money learning and compiling data on a group of godless Atheists who have hatred and murder in their hearts and minds? People who thrive on destruction, slavery, disease, ignorance, poverty, lies, slave labor camps, mass murder and prisons. People who abolish religion, free speech, press and old age, restricted travel and entertainment.

As for Russia's weakness, let the military and FBI worry about the strength and weakness of Russia. Let's concentrate on our weakness which is our text-books which fail to promote and stress free enterprise, free economy, free markets, individualism, competition, initiative, self reliance, ambition, liberty, freedom and tolerance.

What is needed is a local text-book review board of pro-Americans who are capable of detecting subversive propaganda in the text-books, booklets and teachers' guides, pamphlets, etc., which are mailed to the teachers by subversive organizations.

The loyalty oath must be adopted for the protection of the loyal patriotic teachers.

Let's use our schools for what they were intended — to build better American citizens for the America of tomorrow.

Yours very truly,
B. M. Miller

SUBJECT:

For record purposes, I attended a luncheon put on jointly by the American Coalition and the American Legion in the Vandenberg Room of the Capitol on November 30th, at which time the honored guest was Richard Arens of the Subcommittee on Immigration and Naturalization for Internal Security. Arens was presented the Founders Medal of the Order of the American Coalition and a Citation of Merit from the American Legion. He was eulogized most highly by the speakers, which included Senators Welker, Eastland, Ferguson and Jenner. There were 23 people present. It appeared to be a very nice affair.

[redacted] of the American Coalition in 1951-1952, spoke on behalf of the American Coalition and commented at great length on the high regard which Captain John B. Trevor had for Arens and also commented that Captain Trevor has been ill and has not been able to get around too much.

I personally congratulated Arens and as usual Arens was very complimentary pertaining to the Bureau. I think the attached note to Arens from the Director would be in order.

As a matter of interest, there was considerable discussion on the McCarthy Rally in Madison Square Garden in New York City on Monday night, November 29th. A Colonel William F. Heimlich stated that a count had been made and there were 22,000 people present at the meeting but no where near this figure was given credit by the news coverage.

SYNOPSIS:

Per instructions summary of salient information appearing in Bufiles on captioned organization and individual is set forth below. THE AMERICAN COALITION: Founded in 1929 and is made up of over 100 separate patriotic organizations. Purposes according to constitution are to enlist cooperation of patriotic, civic and fraternal organizations and to inspire collective and individual action for various patriotic motives. President of Coalition for a number of years in early 1940's was John Bond Trevor with whom we had cordial relations and who was a good personal friend of the Director. In 1938 Walter S. Steele representing the American Coalition appeared before the Dies Committee regarding subversion in this country. Coalition described in 1939 as anti-alien, anti-New Deal and anti-Communist. In January, 1946, the Coalition at its annual convention passed a resolution commending the Director as Director of the FBI. Chairman of the Resolutions Committee forwarded a copy of the resolution to the Bureau and was cordially thanked. George Sokolsky column of December, 1951, stated John B. Trevor had been smeared for his patriotism by the Bureau of Applied Social Research of Columbia University which was used by the United World Federalists, Inc. Both Columbia and United World Federalists afterwards apologized to Trevor. Current telephone directory reflects American Coalition has offices at 1025 Connecticut Avenue, Northwest.

[redacted] first came to attention of Bureau in 1940 in connection with Ducase. Confidential source advised he had been in contact with principal subject of this case, Frederick Duquesne and [redacted] name and address were found in personal effects of Duquesne. Investigation conducted at that time reflected [redacted]

[redacted] and [redacted] and was alleged to have had extensive experience in advertising field. Was interviewed by Agents of New York Office in 1943 regarding Duquesne. In letter to Director dated August 7, 1947, [redacted]

[redacted] invited Director to speak on anniversary date of September 25, 1947, at commemorative meeting in New York. Director also to receive a gold medal. Invitation was declined. In September, 1947, we forwarded [redacted] various reprints which he requested as President of New York Chapter of the Sons of American Revolution.

RECOMMENDATION: None. For REFORMATION.

Memorandum to Mr. Nichols

DETAILS

PURPOSE:

Mr. Nichols requested a short summary on the American Coalition and [redacted] There is set forth below salient information appearing in Bureau files concerning this organization and individual.

b6

THE AMERICAN COALITION:

Under cover of a memorandum dated November 7, 1941, a summary memorandum entitled "The American Coalition" was forwarded to the Attorney General per his request. Pertinent background of the organization as set forth in this summary memorandum is detailed below.

The American Coalition also known as the American Coalition of Patriotic, Civic and Fraternal Societies, was organized in 1929 and has its national headquarters in the Southern Building, Washington, D. C. It is made up of over 100 separate organizations located in every part of the United States. The purposes of this organization as set forth in its constitution are:

"To enlist the cooperation of patriotic, civic and fraternal organizations and to inspire collective and individual action for the following ends:

1. To keep America American.
2. To promote undefeated allegiance to the United States.
3. To defend the nation against all enemies, foreign and domestic, and advocate the maintenance of an adequate Army and Navy, and other agencies or measures necessary for the national defense.
4. To expose and combat the political and economic fallacies of Socialism and Communism.
5. To resist efforts of assimilated or hyphenated groups to use the Government of the United States for the furtherance of the policies of foreign governments, states, peoples or organizations.

Memorandum to Mr. Nichols

December 2, 1954

6. To advocate restriction upon immigration into the United States; registration of aliens; deportation of undesirables, and other laws or policies tending to establish racial and political solidarity in the United States.
7. To preserve and maintain the Constitution of the United States, and to oppose amendment thereof by other than constitutional means.
8. In general, to promote patriotism; to encourage historical, economic and social research into the origin and development of American institutions; to arouse among our youth a sense of civic and national responsibility, and to disseminate accurate information of an educational character upon all these matters of concern to the nation."

The officers of the organization were set forth and John Bond Trevor was listed as President. His background as set forth in the 1940-41 Who's Who reflected that he was born in Yonkers, New York, in 1878, and attended Harvard University and Columbia Law School. He was a Captain in Military Intelligence during World War I, and in 1941 was a prominent lawyer in New York City.

In April, 1933, the American Coalition secured 4,000 signatures of leaders of organizations affiliated with the American Coalition on a petition opposing recognition of Soviet Russia. This petition was delivered to the White House.

James True, notorious for his anti-Semitic activities, was allegedly closely allied with Mrs. William Sherman Walker, Secretary of the American Coalition, and New Masses magazine for August 18, 1936, was very critical of True and the American Coalition.

Information was received on November 8, 1936, that the American Coalition was engaged in distributing Colonel Hadley's anti-Semitic work entitled "T N T."

December 2, 1954

The American Coalition, when in annual session on November 20, 1936, passed a resolution that public and parochial schools and school books used in the United States should be freed of all foreign propaganda and that neither should be used in the dissemination of such propaganda.

The Bureau received information on two different occasions in 1937 that Trevor had engaged various individuals to investigate subversive activities in the New York City area.

✓Walter S. Steele, representing the American Coalition, appeared before the Dies Committee on August 16 and 17, 1938, at which time he stated that the American Coalition represented 114 patriotic organizations. In discussing the testimony he would give, Steele advised that he would demonstrate the existence of six major un-American menaces in the United States which he claimed to be Communism, Socialism, Nazism, Anarchism, ultra-Pacifism and Atheism. Steele's testimony actually consisted of a discourse on the Communist Party in the United States.

Louis Adamio, in his book entitled "My America" published in 1938, discusses the American Coalition and John Trevor. He is critical of both.

The January 25, 1939, issue of the Washington News carried an article informing that the ninth annual convention of the American Coalition was held at the Carlton Hotel, Washington, D. C. The speakers were Senator Robert Reynolds, Congressman Dies and a Mr. Crandall, a Washington lawyer who declared, "No man has ever given more impetus to Communism than Franklin D. Roosevelt and his humbug administration." Reynolds' speech consisted of an argument for isolation, and Dies' speech criticized an alleged employment of Communists by the Federal Government.

In November, 1939, a source of information described the American Coalition as anti-alien, anti-New Deal and anti-Communist.

A confidential source disclosed that Gerald L. K. Smith of the Committee of One Million, when writing to the New York Economic Council in New York in 1939, stated that the American Coalition was prepared to answer questions concerning his work, Committee, and his integrity.

Memorandum to Mr. Nichols

December 2, 1954

Pamphlets and circulars distributed by the American Coalition in 1940 indicated that the Coalition made many attempts to keep the United States out of World War II.

Mrs. William Sherman Walker, Secretary of the American Coalition, was reported by a confidential source in 1940 to have received German propaganda emanating from Germany and clearing it through the port of Los Angeles, California.

A confidential source in June, 1941, reported that the American Coalition was anti-British in tendency.

It is pointed out that the Bureau never actually conducted any investigation concerning the American Coalition except very limited investigation in 1940 when Mrs. Walker referred to above allegedly received German propaganda through the port of Los Angeles. It is also pointed out that John Bond Trevor was a good friend of the Director and we have had cordial correspondence with him.

Under cover of a letter dated February 2, 1946, [redacted] of the American Coalition, forwarded to the Director a copy of the resolutions adopted at the January 25, 1946, annual convention of the American Coalition. One of the resolutions commended the Director for his work as Director of the FBI. [redacted] was cordially thanked by letter dated February 8, 1946.

Columnist George E. Sokolsky's column of December 26, 1951, was headlined "Patriot Fights Smear and Receives Apology." The column stated that John B. Trevor, a fine American, has been active in a large number of patriotic organizations and that he organized and headed the "American Coalition of Patriotic Societies." The column stated that Trevor was smeared as a Fascist and attacked in a document prepared by the Bureau of Applied Social Research of Columbia University which was used by the United World Federalists, Inc., in an article entitled "The 'New Internationalism' Under Attack." The column stated that Trevor hit back and got an apology from Columbia University and the United World Federalists. (62-21364)

The current Washington telephone directory reflects the American Coalition has offices at 1025 Connecticut Avenue, Northwest.

[redacted] first came to the attention of the Bureau in connection with the investigation of the Ducase in 1940. You will recall the Ducase was the Nazi spy ring case of which Frederick J. Duquesne was the leading figure. In July, 1940, a confidential source made available to Agents of the New York Office many of the personal effects of Duquesne and included in them were various envelopes and memoranda containing the name of Gardner Osborne. Duquesne was also supposed to have contacted [redacted] sometime after June, 1939, after the outbreak of the European War. (65-8946-1669)

As a result of this information, the New York Office conducted background investigation concerning [redacted]. This investigation reflected that [redacted] New York City. The records of the New York Credit Bureau reflected that [redacted]. The latest report dated May, 1937, reflected that [redacted] had very recently become connected with [redacted] [redacted] that he was a business executive and had been employed by the above-named organization for about three months in a responsible position. He was allegedly to have had extensive experience in the advertising field. [redacted] subsequently, in 1943, was interviewed by Agents of the New York Office concerning his knowledge of Duquesne. (65-8946-2057)

In May, 1945, [redacted] called at the New York Office and advised that he had been contacted by one [redacted] concerning his knowledge of Duquesne. [redacted] did not know who [redacted] was and wanted to know if he should give [redacted] the information he was requesting. We advised the New York Office that the Bureau was well acquainted with [redacted] who was employed by the Washington Star and was planning to write a book on Duquesne. We advised New York that they could tell [redacted] that as far as the Bureau was concerned, he should feel free to tell [redacted] anything he knew concerning Duquesne. (65-8946-10190)

December 2, 1954

In a letter to the Director dated August 7, 1947,

[redacted] invited the Director to speak on the anniversary date of September 25, 1947, at a commemorative meeting in New York. The Director was also to receive the annual gold Americanism Medal awarded by the Wall Street Post of the American Legion which was a cosponsor of this commemorative meeting. This invitation was declined by letter to Osborne dated August 28, 1947. (94-1-5971-62; 94-1-29598-22).

By letter dated September 9, 1947, [redacted]

[redacted] of the Sons of the American Revolution, cordially thanked the Director for material which had been furnished to him. This material consisted of the Director's American Legion speech and various other reprints of statements made by the Director. (94-1-1288-158)

The Bureau received a form letter dated October 25, 1954, captioned "The U. S. Nationalist Party Organization, 853 Seventh Avenue, New York City 19." This form letter was signed West Hooker, Organizational Chairman. The letter requested assistance and participation in the formation of a new political party to be known as the U. S. Nationalist Party Organization. There were numerous enclosures with this letter and one enclosure in the form of a deposition by Hooker stated: "Attached please find a copy of a 'memorandum' on me sent to [redacted] of the American Coalition of New York telling him that as long as my name appeared on the list of advertisers of the American Coalition of New York that 'the Coalition should not expect the usual cooperation of the Jewish organizations.' This memorandum was sent by Alfred Kohlberg, directly to [redacted] after a consultation between Kohlberg and Schultz...." Bureau files disclosed that West Hooker, who operates Film Research, Inc., New York, was described on August 31, 1954, by George Sokolsky as one who has become violently anti-Semitic. Sokolsky's identity concerning this information should be protected. (105-33261)

It is pointed out that [redacted] name is found in the files both with and without the final "e" but it is noted that in correspondence from him, he does not use an "e" on his name.

(2) Membership application blank to join the ACNY.

(3) Leaflet by ACNY captioned "Our 1955 Targets." The leaflet sets forth that the program of ACNY is to promote individual allegiance to the Constitution; to combat Communism; and particularly to watch the activities of various organizations such as the Americans for Democratic Action (ADA).

(4) Leaflet captioned "Is the ADA a Trojan Horse?" The leaflet states that the ADA program is to promote a welfare state.

(5) A leaflet entitled "Supplement to News and Views, No. 254, January, 1955," which criticizes the ADA.

(6) A leaflet which sets forth names of sponsors of an ADA annual dinner scheduled on February 2, 1955, at Washington, D. C.

(7) Leaflet captioned "The Constitution Versus the UN," which criticizes proposed appointment of Judge John Marshall Harlan to the Supreme Court because Judge Harlan has indicated he may be favorable to the UN.

Bufiles contain no information identifiable with the correspondent and the ACNY.

The files reflect that the ADA was formed in January, 1947, and that the leadership of this organization has been criticized for espousing some programs similar to programs supported by the Communist Party. (100-348196)

IN 1948 A.D.A. (Americans for Democratic Action) did a little flirting with Gen. Eisenhower (then in Europe) — thinking favorably of him as "their" Democratic candidate. It was generally thought that Truman could not be re-elected. At that time Eisenhower's Party leanings were a mystery. Apparently he was not responsive to the A.D.A. gesture. * * * It was also in 1948 that Communist Peter V. Cacchione (member of the New York city council) died and the Communists tried by resolution to have him replaced by Simon Gerson — likewise a Communist. This the Council refused to do — but A.D.A. sided with the Communists and the Daily Worker (2/18/48) carried a story headlined — "ADA Board Condemns Council for Refusal to Seat Gerson."

1949. A.D.A.'s SOCIALIST character was highlighted by a letter in the New Leader (S.D.F. socialist organ) 1/22/49 from its Pennsylvania representative which said — "I think ADA has such a vital role in obtaining enactment of much needed social reform that I have joined it. . . . Socialists should work within ADA. . . ." * * * A.D.A.'s further Communist affinity was shown by a story in the Daily Worker (10/24/49) headlined — "ADA Denounces Denial of Bail" referring to the first 11 Communists convicted under the Smith Act. Such furor caused them to be given bail and four of them promptly disappeared forfeiting $20,000 bail each. Two of these (Gus Hall and Robert Thompson) have been captured; the other two are still in hiding — active, perhaps, in the Red underground. * * * In July ('49) A.D.A. at a Washington conference issued a blast declaring — "the Tafts, the Wherrys and the Byrds, and their fellow travelers, including the monopolistic interests for whom they speak, are the unwitting but most powerful allies of Communism in the western world." But it was A.D.A. (not the Byrds, Tafts and Wherrys) who came to the aid of the Communists demanding bail for their convicted subversives.

1950. Benjamin C. Sigal, speaking for A.D.A. made a vigorous protest against the then pending Mundt-Ferguson bill (Daily Worker 3/29/50). This was a bill to control subversives and was later passed as the McCarran or Subversive Control Act of 1950 and is the law now being used by the Government to deal with Communist-front organizations. But A.D.A. tried to keep the bill from passing — and at a New York (Sept. 1950) meeting praised Sen. Lehman for his "magnificent fight" against the McCarran (anti-Communist) bill. The meeting also urged the USA to face "realities" in China which, of course, meant to forget Chiang and work with the Reds — and they also called for the election to Congress of 40 or 50 "liberals" to fight "reaction." * * * Senator Capehart read into the Senate Record (Feb. 1950) the "History of PCA, ADA and Henry Wallace." He hammered hard at ADA and said — "We are getting Socialism in America through the back door." * * * Another tie-up with socialism was demonstrated when in April, 1950, the New Leader (S.D.F. socialist organ) put out a 4-page supplement giving A.D.A.'s history of achievement to date with a special message to A.D.A. members which included a subscription coupon which said — "as an ADA Member, I think it is my duty to help make the New Leader the voice of American liberalism."

1951. SAL HOFFMAN of the AFL Upholsterers union withdrew from A.D.A. when its leaders came out favoring Red China and abandoning our ally — Nationalist China. He put it up to A.D.A. like this — "Opposition to Communism with exceptions is no opposition at all today. In my 30 years of fighting Communism," he continued, "I have found there is only one way to fight and that is — fight Communism 24 hours a day, every day, everywhere." * * * In February (1951) at its 4th annual convention in Cleveland, A.D.A. passed a resolution condemning all who "capitulate to the nefarious tactics of the Taft-Hartley axis." Apparently A.D.A. wants to go back to the reign of terror under the Wagner law. * * * In July, 1951, a Congressional Committee on "lobbying" was urged to investigate A.D.A.'s acceptance of $139,000 from certain labor unions who are forbidden by the Taft-Hartley law from making political contributions. A.D.A. spokesman Francis Biddle (F.D.R.'s attorney general) opposed this investigation claiming A.D.A. was not lobbying. He admitted it was a political organization — which would clearly put contributing unions in violation of the law. Biddle claimed the union money was put in a special fund and "used for other purposes" — but those purposes were not explained.

THAT A.D.A. is one of the Communists' best little helpers was further highlighted when the Daily Worker (12/14/51) headlined a story — "ADA Launches Drive to Repeal Smith Act." The Smith Act is the Government's best law to convict CP leaders and liquidate the Party. But A.D.A. wants it repealed. * * * During 1951 California's A.D.A. sponsored trips for its student division (Students for Democratic Action) into the Northwest to inspect the Columbia Valley dam projects and be indoctrinated with "TVA" philosophy. * * * A.D.A. has been building these student groups on many campuses. The New Republic (7/9/51) reported that an A.D.A. student group met at Berea College and petitioned the Supreme Court to review its decision upholding the Smith Act — took a stand against loyalty oaths; called for a Federal Scholarship Fund; and advocated an aggressive racial-equality policy.

1952. President Truman addressed an A.D.A. meeting in May (1952) indicating how well it had him and his party under control. On July 19th the Chicago Daily News reported a strategy meeting of A.D.A.'s national board on two points of action — (1) to put a strong civil rights plank in the Democratic convention platform, and (2) to agree on candidates A.D.A. wanted nominated. Within a few weeks Adlai Stevenson was the Democratic candidate with A.D.A. advisors and speech writers all around him. Leo Lerner (A.D.A.'s Illinois man) directed a "Stevenson for President" office in the Conrad Hilton hotel prior to the nomination. Stevenson's personal campaign manager (Wilson Wyatt) was A.D.A.'s first President. Walter Reuther and Joseph Rauh, Jr., (two A.D.A. big-wigs) had called on Stevenson before the nomination — and A.D.A. Arthur Schlesinger (Harvard professor) was made Stevenson's research director. * * * In August '52 New Dealer Robert R. Nathan succeeded Stanley Gerwitz as chairman, executive committee, A.D.A. — and in September Nathan's firm was given a $125,000 contract for drafting plans to rebuild Korea. Former national commander of the American Legion, Edward A. Hayes, speaking at Springfield, Illinois (10/29/52) charged that Stevenson's alliance with A.D.A. was an "insult to every American boy who sleeps eternally under a white cross anywhere, and particularly in Korea." * * * On January 25, 1952, A.D.A. sponsored a $50 per plate dinner (The National Roosevelt Day Dinner) at the Waldorf Astoria with Senator Herbert Lehman and Walter Reuther as speakers and hundreds of "liberals" attending. The Saturday Evening Post in an editorial (9/20/52) described A.D.A. as "Americans for Demagogic Action." George Sokolsky (10/21/52) referred to "the socialistic ADA executive committee" — and Fulton Lewis (10/16/52) reported "The left-wing Americans for Democratic Action is trying to elect a Democratic congressman from the 22nd district in California."

1953. A.D.A. joined the "Communist sparked" crusade against McCarthy — printing and distributing (for a price) the Benton charges that McCarthy had used campaign money for his own purposes, at the same time A.D.A. was deftly sidestepping its own misadventure in accepting money from labor unions. A.D.A. made a great issue of this McCarthy matter but was silent as a tomb concerning the Harry Dexter White and similar New Deal scandals. * * * A.D.A. at its 6th annual convention in Washington attacked President Eisenhower (whom in 1948 it had sought as a candidate) for "lack of leadership" and admonished him to get rid of "McCarthyism." (This word, incidentally, was coined and first used by the Communists — Daily Worker 4/5/50). As A.D.A.'s 6th convention ended, the Daily Worker (5/26/53) headlined a front page story — "Americans for Democratic Action: Call for Big Four Parley, Fight Back on McCarthyism." This was strictly Communist "party line" at the time and adds to the proof that A.D.A.'s "non-Communist" pose seems phony. There is a lot of difference between posing as "non-Communist" and being "anti-Communist."

A WEEK LATER (5/31/53) the Daily Worker featured another approving story headed — "ADA Begins to Face UP to Real Problems." The article began — "McCarthyism — the overwhelming world-wide desire for peace and the new threat to all economic and social gains of the last 20 years shaped the deliberations of the sixty annual convention of the Americans for Democratic Action (ADA), held here last week. Many ADA leaders continued to play the 'anti-Communist' song but mostly in muted tones, and it was rarely heard at all when rank and file convention delegates took the floor." This is more proof that the Communists consider A.D.A.ers natural bed-fellows. In the summers of 1958 Fulton Lewis publicized a plan by A.D.A.'s Students for Democratic Action to get their members to go to Washington to take summer Government jobs (at taxpayers expense) and while there to attend three lecture sessions a week (after working hours) to be (as Lewis put it) "indoctrinated by left-wing speakers who acquired notoriety while worshipping at the shrine of world Socialists." Harvard's A.D.A. ornament of frustration, Arthur Schlesinger, Jr., in his column in Dorothy Schiff's New York Post (10/4/53) described how the current issue of "ADA WORLD" carried a "Congressional Supplement" giving the voting record of members of both Houses for guidance of liberals — and mentioned that the "most liberal Republican Senator is John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky." Republicans could get a lesson by noting that when Cooper tried for reelection in 1954 the "liberal" votes he had been flirting with went to Alben Barkley — leaving Cooper outside looking in: * * * (See 1953 reprint on first page of this Bulletin as to what one conservative Democrat had to say about A.D.A.) * * * The distinguished commentator, George Sokolsky (9/28/53) commenting on A.D.A. in the New York Mayoralty campaign, said — "The ADA is an organization born out of the New Deal and sired by British Fabian Socialism" — and in the New York campaign he called it — "The menace of the hidden hand — and the question is: Who controls the hidden hand?" In 1953 A.D.A. demanded that the President dismiss Dean Clarence Manion (whom the President had appointed as chairman of the Commission on Inter-Government Relationships). Manion was promptly dismissed — and "liberal" Meyer Kestenbaum was appointed to succeed him. (Watch for the report from this Commission due early in 1955.)

1954. A.D.A. sponsored a "Roosevelt Day" dinner in Boston (1/24/54) with Senator Lehman as chief speaker. He eulogized A.D.A. to the skies. He lambasted Senator McCarthy. He ridiculed the effort to clean loyalty risks out of Ft. Monmouth. He hit at "book burners" — and "congressional inquisitors" — and at those who support the Bricker amendment. But never a word against the Communists. — * * * — The Los Angeles Times (2/9/54) in an editorial commented that A.D.A. disliked "open investigation of suspected Communists, and they dislike private investigations of suspected Communists. Can it be they really dislike investigation of Communists?"

AT A MEETING of A.D.A.'s "Independent Voters of Illinois (IVI) addressed by Adlai Stevenson and Senator Paul Douglas (2/10/54) the Chicago News reported that "attacks on the Bricker amendment and Senator McCarthy drew the greatest applause." The Communist Daily Worker covered this meeting and liked it — giving it much space, headlined — "IVI Unfolds 1954 Campaign, Directs Fire at McCarthyism."

THE DAILY WORKER (3/29/54) headlined a story — "ADA blasts Stalling on Probe into McCarthy's Battle with the Army." Such help from ADA pleased the Communists greatly. * * * Then again on April 18, '54 the Communist Sunday Worker ran a big story headed — "ADA Would Whittle Joe Down to Size." Communists dote on having others do their work for them.

CONGRESSMAN KIT CLARDY of Michigan delivered on the floor of the House (6/2/54) the most devastating examination of A.D.A. ever made in which he called it "Today's Trojan Horse." (A copy of this can be obtained from the Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C.) He began by saying — "America is being destroyed from within." He quoted J. Edgar Hoover as saying — "The pseudo-liberal can be more destructive than the known Communist because of the esteem which his cloak of respectability invites." He further quoted Mr. Hoover — "It is an established fact that whenever one has dared to expose the Communist threat he has invited upon himself the adroit and skilled talents of experts of character assassination." "This," said Mr. Clardy, "has been A.D.A.'s specialty — they have continually vilified everyone who dares expose the aims and plans and methods of the Communists." A few months later when Mr. Clardy came up for reelection — he went down to defeat under one of the greatest gang-ups of "liberal" and Left-wing forces ever directed against any candidate.

The A.D.A. WORLD (Dec. 1954) sparkled with A.D.A. Joy over the outcome of the 1954 elections — and reported big plans for future conquests. It showed a picture of A.D.A. students presenting to Senator Duff a petition of hundreds of names secured by them asking for a McCarthy censure. A full column was devoted to events and activities of A.D.A. student chapters. The editor of the "ADA WORLD" (David C. Williams) while in Britain in 1950 (as an ADA representative) wrote a pamphlet titled "The Intelligent Socialist's Guide to America" which was published by Aneurin Bevan's socialist "London Tribune."

* * * * *

IN CONCLUSION. Our purpose is to examine and report on forces and processes that are helping to influence change in America. This examination of A.D.A. is another of a long series of such reports — and others will follow.

National FDR Day Planners Announced

Senator Herbert H. Lehman (D., N.Y.) and Hubert H. Humphrey (D., Minn.) have agreed to serve as co-chairmen of the National Committee for Roosevelt Day.

ADA sponsors a series of Roosevelt Day dinners each year, beginning in the last week of January. The dinners were inaugurated, with the approval of Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, in 1949.

The seventh annual series of Roosevelt Day dinners, as in past years, is designed to perpetuate the principles and policies of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Vice-Chairmen

The following members and friends of ADA will serve as vice-chairmen of the Roosevelt Day Committee: Arthur Altmeyer, former Social Security Administrator; Adolph Berle, chairman of the Liberal Party; Francis Biddle, former Attorney-General under President Roosevelt; Charles Brannan, former Secretary of Agriculture; James B. Carey, CIO Secretary-Treasurer and President of the IUE-CIO; Oscar Chapman, former Secretary of the Interior; Benjamin V. Cohen, former member of the UN American delegation to the UN.

Other Vice-Chairmen

Also serving as Vice-Chairmen

OUR 1955 TARGETS

We list as our program of action the following issues in which we reaffirm our fundamental interest as a coordinating organization:

1. To Promote undivided allegiance to the proven principles of the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States of America.
2. To Combat the economic and political fallacies of Socialism and Communism, by deporting, debarring, denaturalizing subversives.
3. To Develop sentiment against any bipartisan Congressional investigating committees which are party responsibility. The Democrats will not expose any of the procommunism in their former administrations and the Republicans have not shown any disposition to clean their own house.
4. To Work for a Bricker-type amendment and oppose any appointments to the Supreme Court of One Worlders like Mr. Harlan.
5. To Reaffirm Gen. George Washington's admonition in his farewell address concerning the exposure of any "innovation, ... however spacious the pretext ... that would undermine what cannot be directly overthrown," such as the treaty technique of the United Nations.
6. To Publicize the Status of Forces Treaty to inform Fathers, Mothers and Wives of drafted soldiers of such dangers as the Keefe Case.
7. To Defend against capture Government Agencies, the Foundations, Left-Wing Unions, Hollywood, Radio and TV, the Press, Political Units, Policy Advising Groups like the Institute of Pacific Relations, etc.
8. ~~To Defend the McGarran-Walter Law against crippling amendments.~~
9. To Help establish Un-American Activities Committees within States.
10. To Actively defend this great nation against all enemies, both foreign and domestic.

Keep our eye generally on the activity of the Americans For Democratic Action, Unesco, Left-wing Foundations, Education (Progressive socialist) the Lehman-Celler Immigration group, the Committee for an 'Effective Congress' and other termites boring away at our Customs, Traditions and basic Freedoms.

Is the A.D.A. a Trojan Horse?

We hear more every day about the A.D.A., the abbreviation for an organization known as Americans for Democratic Action. It was organized the first week of January, 1947 by well known New Dealers -- and its clear purpose is to promote the Welfare-state philosophy of the New-Fair Deal -- and enforce it politically. Eleanor Roosevelt's name leads all the rest on the A.D.A. letterhead which originally was known as "Union for Democratic Action."

This U.D.A. was militantly active in backing the New Deal in the 1942 and the "fourth term" 1944 elections. Its President was Frank Kingdon, a British born Left-activist with many listings by the House Committee on Un-American Activities. Another high official of U.D.A. was Dr. Reinhold Niebuhr, a professor at Union Theological Seminary, brilliant as a machine-gunning vocalist and a veteran "liberal" with the Left-fronts. The Research Director for U.D.A. was an Antioch College professor, Lewis Corey (recently deceased), who under the name of Louis G. Fraina was an active functionary in organizing the Communist Party in America in 1919.

The Chicago Branch of U.D.A. had as executive director a young "liberal", Frank McCulloch, of aggressive socialist-front activity (Debs Labor School, Workers Alliance, etc.), arrested (1935) leading "unemployed" march - now chief assistant to Illinois Senator Paul Douglas (once active in campaigns for Socialist Norman Thomas). McCulloch's name appeared on first A.D.A. letterheads.

Others active in this U.D.A. branch were Prof. George Axtelle (listed in Louis Budenz' Communist "Mid-west Daily Record" (1/20/40) as bail fund chairman for "International Labor Defense", called by former Attorney General Biddle the "legal defense arm of the Communist Party." Axtelle was then with Dean Ernest Melby at Northwestern U. - now with him at N.Y.U. Others in this branch of U.D.A. that became A.D.A. were Jerome Kerwin (U. of Chicago), Adam Kulikowski, Samuel Laderman, Mrs. Albert Lepawski, Samuel Lewin, Leo Lerner (who later became head of A.D.A.'s Illinois branch) - and many others.

The significance of all this has to be explained by background documentation. To start with there was a merger of two Communist-dominated groups (Dec. 29-30, 1946) where the "Citizens Committee of Arts, Sciences and Professions" (made up of intellectuals) and Sidney Hillman's "National Citizens Political Action Committee" (listed by the House Committee on Un-American Activities as a "major Communist front organization" - which taken as a whole, includes a formidable list of confirmed fellow travelers of and fronters for Communist organizations) were merged into a dazzling new Trojan Horse called "Progressive Citizens of America."

To follow this organized action just a step further, the real reason for this merger was the terrific beating taken by the New Deal-liberals in the 1946 election. In that campaign "Communism" was the issue used by the patriots to mow the "liberals" down. The U.D.A. crowd realized that, with FDR's spell-binding leadership gone, the extreme Left-wingers organizing the new Progressive Citizens of America "front" to grab control of the whole "progressive movement" - the non-Communist-liberals would lose all the ground gained since 1933 unless they could quickly extricate themselves from the Red network with which the voters were associating them.

Consequently the spreading investigations caused a new effort to get rid of the Communist taint and the meeting announced that the new organization would be known as the Americans for Democratic Action, thus bringing the vast herd of "liberals" who had been feeding in the New Deal pastures under one roof.

President Eisenhower seems to have a talent for getting into hot water. It's largely, of course, because he is a newcomer to American politics. His experience has been in the military, and because of his lack of knowledge of politics he is being constantly pushed into difficult situations by the men who surround him. His latest clash rises out of an appointment to the Supreme Court of the United States to fill the vacancy left by the death of the late Justice Jackson. The President has named Judge John Marshall Harlan, of New York, to the Supreme Court, and this has started a red-hot row behind the scenes on both the Democratic and Republican sides.

You cannot appreciate the seriousness of this row without setting the scenery. President Truman got into a similar row on this same issue. It has to do with the United Nations. The United Nations adopted a collection of regulations covering the rights of citizens inside the United States. Of course, no one has a right to make laws governing the internal affairs of the United States except the Congress and President, and even their powers are very severely restricted. However, our global politicians insist that the United Nations has this power. The United States joined the United Nations by making a treaty with all the other member nations to form this thing called the United Nations. Of course the Senate and the President have a right to make treaties, but these treaties are made not to cover the internal affairs of our states, but to regulate our relations with other countries. But this new crowd have suddenly discovered that our President and Senate, by a treaty, can actually make rules in violation of the Constitution of the United States -- can actually change the Constitution. The Constitution says it can be altered only by a vote of three-fourths of the states. So you see what a broad usurpation of power this is.

Now what has this got to do with President Eisenhower's appointment of Judge John Marshall Harlan to the Supreme Court? Well, powerful members of the United States Senate -- both Democrats and Republicans, believe Judge Harlan, if he is put on the bench will side with those justices who are in favor of legalizing this outrageous claim of the United Nations to make laws governing the American people. Let me give you a case which will make this clearer.

This brings us to a grim subject -- namely cemeteries and burial grounds. The ritual of burial is very deeply mixed up with the religious beliefs and social traditions of our people of various groups. For instance, in many cities various fraternal orders have chartered cemeteries for their own members. There are cemeteries set apart by religious groups for their members. In the case of Catholics, for example, it is a deeply rooted belief that their dead should be buried in consecrated ground. There are soldiers' cemeteries limited to those who have fought in our wars. Any group has a right for religious or sentimental reasons to provide a burial ground where their comrades or loved ones may rest. No one has ever challenged this in the United States.

Now, out in Sioux City, Iowa, there's a cemetery owned by a private organization. One of the rules is that only members of the Caucasian race can be buried in this graveyard. The management of the cemetery has said it is bound by this rule and recently declared that an Indian could not be buried there under its rules. Now, whether this is good or bad is not the point. It is certainly not something the United Nations has a right to monkey with. Now listen to this. The subject was brought to the Supreme Court of the United States in a law suit. No claim was made that it was unconstitutional or in violation of the law of any city or state. The claim was made that this action was prohibited by the United Nations Charter, in which we are mixed up only by a treaty. Most Americans, I'm sure, felt the United Nations was designed to preserve the peace of the world and regulate international relations -- not to make rules on where and how we bury our dead.

Now in the Supreme Court, this case was argued. But one of the 9 justices had died, leaving only 8 and they divided 4 to 4 on this case. That is, one-half of these strange judges decided that the United Nations had a right to make laws governing so personal and intimate a subject as the manner and place of burying our dead. The other 4 judges disagreed, and so no decision was reached. The President has now appointed a new justice to fill the place of the 1 who died. He has named Judge John Marshall Harlan and this proposed appointment has raised a storm in the United States Senate.

Now back to this Supreme Court row. The appointment of Judge Harlan has raised quite a row because of Judge Harlan's strange views on globalism, world government and the United Nations. And so the appointment is being opposed vigorously by some leaders on both Democratic and Republican sides of the Senate. Here are their reasons. First, Judge Harlan is a Rhodes Scholar. That is, he was educated at Oxford, England with funds provided by the will of the late Cecil Rhodes. Rhodes provided a huge foundation to educate young Americans in England in order to indoctrinate them with his great dream of bringing the United States back into the British Empire. These Rhodes scholars, as they are known, have organized several leagues to carry out the dream of Cecil Rhodes. Second, Judge Harlan is a member of the Atlantic Union Committee, also dedicated to the union of Britain and the United States. There are several other groups, usually known as One-Worlders, who wish to sink the sovereignty and independence of the United States in some kind of world organization.

Now, of course there is no way in which the independence of the United States can be frittered away in such a world organization except by a change in the Constitution. These strange Americans know this, so they invent a new scheme; namely they claim it can be done by a mere treaty with other countries. And indeed they have gone very far with this in the United Nations, which, they insist has acquired by treaty the right to make laws governing our own local and domestic affairs, even a subject so far removed from international matters as the regulation of our cemeteries. If they can do that, they can regulate anything. We have already 4 judges on the Court in favor of this. If this crowd gets 1 more vote they can destroy our independence. It is of the utmost importance, therefore, that Judge Harlan's opinions on this subject be severely scrutinized before the Senate approves his appointment.

Personal and Party relationships grow very strained in Washington. Last week, as you perhaps know, the President gave a dinner -- a state dinner -- which may have very grave repercussions in this country. He invited to his dinner the chairmen of all the Senate and House committees and their wives -- that is, the Democratic leaders. He also included in the invitation the ranking Republican members and their wives -- the Republican leaders of his own Party. Senator McCarthy is the ranking Republican member of the Senate Committee on Government Operations. But Senator McCarthy and his wife were ostentatiously omitted from the list of guests. This, of course, was taken as a pointed insult to the Senator and the lovely lady who is his wife. I doubt if this has lost any friends for Senator McCarthy. I am sure it has made none for the President.

This brings me to a little kiddie cartoon comic book called Nutsy Squirrel. While the kiddies are reading about Nutsy Squirrel, there's a nice little plug slipped in for the United Nations. One cartoon picture shows a fellow named Ali, over in Asia. He discovers locusts making for his crops. Little boy Ali says "Oh, father, they will eat our crops. Who will help us?" Then the next picture shows planes from the United States, and Russia -- just buddies -- spraying the crops and saving Ali's wheat. Then there's the plug to tell the little kiddies what a wonderful thing the United Nations is and how it is saving the people of Asia from the locusts. Of course they do not mention that, in the meantime, the locusts are swarming over us out of the United Nations and the federal Treasury. But what a nice place for a plug for the United Nations -- in a kiddie book about Nutsy Squirrel.

THE LATTIMORE STORY by John T. Flynn

Mr. Flynn's absorbing book, "The Lattimore Story," was written straight from the record of the 14 volumes of testimony and documents compiled by the McCarran Committee. Few people would have the time or patience to wade through these voluminous records; but Mr. Flynn has done it, and from this evidence has written an interesting and easy-reading documentary of what is undoubtedly one of the most incredible pages in American history. This is the story of how a handful of individuals -- writers, journalists, educators and high ranking government officials, assisted by the Institute of Pacific Relations, forced our State Department to betray China and Korea into the waiting hands of the Communists. We think every American should read this book, and, as a special offer, it is made available for a limited time as a bonus with each one-year's subscription to reprints of the Flynn commentaries. The total cost for both book and subscription is $4.00.

Dear John:

I was glad to receive your letter of February 10 and appreciate very much your concern regarding the article you indicated was written by Ralph McGill and in which certain charges were made against you. Apparently Mr. McGill has not received the full facts for I have known him for a number of years and am confident that he is a man of integrity. Perhaps if you take this matter up personally with him you will be able to straighten him out.

It is good to hear that you are now home which indicates to me that you are making good progress. I hope you will follow your doctor's instructions so that you will soon be feeling like your old self again. Do take it easy and let me hear how you are getting along.

With kindest personal regards and best wishes,

Sincerely,

15/Edgar

Letter to Captain John B. Trevor

February 16, 1955

ATTENTION SAC - ATLANTA: Please attempt to secure copies of the editorials and news items from the "Atlanta Constitution" which reportedly mentioned Mr. Trevor. You should, of course, not make an open contact with anyone at the "Atlanta Constitution" to obtain these items. Sulet under caption "John B. Trevor, New York, New York, RESEARCH, Crime Records" no later than February 21, 1955.

NOTE: Mr. Trevor was President of "The American Coalition" for a number of years. This group was founded in 1929 and was made up of about one hundred separate patriotic organizations. Mr. Trevor has long been a close friend of the Director's. In the Winrod sedition trial, Mr. Trevor was named as a possible witness. He, of course, was not indicted. The "Atlanta Constitution" file does not reflect a copy of the editorial which allegedly mentions Mr. Trevor.

Hon. J. Edgar Hoover,

Washington, D. C.

Dear Edgar:

I have been receiving a number of letters from the South and clippings from the "Atlanta Constitution", of Atlanta, Georgia, embodying an article by Ralph McGill, who I understand is the editor of the paper in which he makes the charge that I "was one of those indicted in the 1942 sedition and conspiracy report". I understand that this man has had some left-wing connections in the past, and I would appreciate any information you can give me about him.

I am still confined to my room as a result of the three operations I had up at the Medical Center in November, December and January, but while I am having an unpleasant time, it is certainly a joy to be back in my own home again.

Very sincerely yours,

John B. Trevor.

Relet from Director to Captain JOHN B. TREVOR, 2-18-55, (Personal and Confidential copies for New York and Atlanta).

There are enclosed three copies of a column, written by Mr. RALPH MCGILL, appearing Column 1, Page 1, December 8, 1954, issue of Atlanta Constitution newspaper. (One copy of this editorial being forwarded to New York Office for information). Mr. MCGILL is editor of the Atlanta Constitution and author of a daily, first page column, on various topics, which appears in that newspaper.

Mr. MCGILL is a strong supporter of the Director personally and of the Bureau generally. He has repeatedly and consistently editorialized along these lines.

Mr. MCGILL has been severely critical of Senator JOSEPH McCARTHY over a considerable period of time. Prior to, during, and, for a while subsequent to the so-called "Army-McCarthy Hearings", Mr. MCGILL repeatedly wrote caustic articles concerning McCARTHY. The enclosed is considered representative of MCGILL's attacks on Senator McCARTHY.

The only mention made in this column to TREVOR reads: "JOHN B. TREVOR, still another 'Ten Million Americans' leader was one of those indicted in the 1942 sedition and conspiracy report". No explanation of "report" referred to by MCGILL is noted and Atlanta indices negative on TREVOR. A discreet check of "Morgue files" of Atlanta Constitution was made and no reference to TREVOR located. It is known, however, that MCGILL maintains a large personal reference library in his private office.

The following signed editorial by RALPH MCGILL appeared in the Atlanta Constitution newspaper, December 8, 1954, under the headline "The TMA Crowd Behind McCarthy". The article reads as follows:

"This really is a piece about what a warped American leader, Joe McCarthy, is (as his attack on President Eisenhower as tolerating Communism vividly illustrates) and a piece which also will discuss what a curious lot the TMA (Ten Million Americans) are --- and to note what an egg they laid in their efforts to obtain the ten million signatures. (They got one million, or 1/10 of their total).

"First, let it be noted that severe criticism properly is developing against those Army and Navy officers, all retired, who are whooping it up for McCarthy. Used to ordering people around, and accustomed to being saluted and exalted, they apparently do not like being retired as ordinary civilians. Apparently they want power and 'obedience'. One of these, an ex-Admiral from Alabama, whose people, well acquainted with him, defeated him overwhelmingly the only time he offered for office, was with those black-uniformed guards who drew their pistols in the Capitol Building Plaza last week. He has not denied he was the one who ordered the guards to draw their guns before the doors of your Capitol and mine.

"Certainly these few extremists do not represent the Army or Navy. They bring shame upon their profession.

"Who are these people behind 'Ten Million Americans Mobilized for Justice?' Their petition said, with typical fakery, that persons who opposed McCarthy were for Communism ---or were 'stooges' --- that the Committee headed by Senator Watkins, liberally praised by President Eisenhower for 'doing a good job in the McCarthy censure', 'were under the influence of Communists' ---who were they?

"Let's go back.

"After General Dwight D. Eisenhower won the nomination at the Chicago Convention in the late summer of 1952, Colonel Robert McCormack of the Chicago Tribune, announced the organization of the 'For America Party'. In 1954, the New York Times carried a story announcing the appointment of General Bonner Fellers (Retired) as Director of 'For America'---and an objective of ten million members.

"On November 21, 1954, the New York Times reported:

'--the (McCarthy) anti-censure forces have drawn up a cadre that clearly represents the re-emergence of, and the coming together of, essentially right-wing groups since the United States entered the Second World War --- Senator McCarthy catalyzes them all into one more or less single camp--'

"Now look closely ----

"Among the vice chairmen listed for TMA are Lieutenant General Pedro A. del Valle (Ret.), Mrs. Grace H. Brosseau, and John B. Trevor.

"In 1950, General del Valle was a Director of the National Economic Council. This group dominated by Merwin K. Hart is violently anti-labor, has fought all recent labor legislation; attacks the United Nations in reckless terms.

"In 1951, the Americanism Commission of the American Legion (Department of Illinois) as quoted from the Congressional Record said 'Last year--we presented Merwin K. Hart of the National Economic Council as a hate propagandist---those who reason in the manner of the National Economic Council are, whether they know it or not, selling out to the Communist Party'.

"John B. Trevor; still another "Ten Million Americans" leader was one of those indicted in the 1942 sedition and conspiracy report.

"Mrs. David Good, yet another TMA leader, was identified before the House un-American Activities Committee as having attended a closed meeting with Fritz Kuhn and the German Bund leaders--all tied in with Hitler. (Kuhn actually took a large financial contribution to Hitler in Germany).

"This is just a part of the story --- of those who backed McCarthy and who have just laid an egg because of the courage and Americanism of the Congress"

You will recall that we received a letter from Captain Trevor on February 10, 1955, expressing great concern since receiving word that the Atlanta Constitution had identified him as one of the individuals who had been indicted in the famous 1942 sedition trials.

We wrote Captain Trevor on February 18, 1955, pointing out that apparently Mr. McGill was in possession of the full facts and pointing out that the Director regarded McGill as a man of complete integrity. The Director suggested to Captain Trevor that he take up the matter directly with Mr. McGill.

In connection with this letter from Captain Trevor, the Atlanta Office was ~~also~~ instructed to make a check to determine just what had been said in the Atlanta Constitution regarding Captain Trevor. By letter dated February 21, 1955, Atlanta advises that on December 8, 1954, Column 1, Page 1, the following statement appeared in a column written by Mr. McGill: "John B. Trevor, still another 'Ten Million Americans' leader was one of those indicted in the 1942 sedition and conspiracy report."

RECOMMENDATION:

None. This is for your information.

I suggest we furnish correct facts to
Ralph McGill by having SAC Mumford, Atlanta, see him.

[redacted] who formerly was with Senator Smathers and is now with Senator George, called to advise that Ralph McGill, the editor of the Atlanta Constitution, is being sued for a million dollars in a libel action brought by Captain John B. Trevor, President of the American Coalition. McGill is appealing to Senator George for help and asked the Senator to secure a Department of Justice press release dated 1/4/43, which had to do with the indictment of the so-called seditionists and which McGill believes linked Trevor to the seditionists.

I told [redacted] that while we would be glad to help out, the old Department of Justice press releases were maintained in the Department. Since he would want this for evidentiary purposes, it was suggested that it might be desirable for him to contact Fred Mullen directly.

He wondered if there was any information which we might have on Captain Trevor which might be of some value to Ralph McGill in defending the libel suit. I told [redacted] that I doubted very much that we have anything of this type as Captain Trevor had always been aligned with patriotic movements.

15 Senators Urge Atlantic Union Talks

Associated Press

Senator Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) said yesterday a congressional call for an international conference on Atlantic Union "would electrify free men everywhere."

He said it provides the free world "with a new and tremendously dynamic idea," and would help at the same time in current dealings with Russia.

Kefauver appeared before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee in support of a resolution offered by him and 14 other Senators.

The resolution proposes that the President invite the six other countries which sponsored the North Atlantic Treaty—Canada, Britain, France, Belgium, Luxembourg and the Netherlands—to a conference. The conference itself could invite other countries.

The delegates would explore and report "to what extent their peoples might further unite within the framework of the United Nations, and agree to form, federally or otherwise, a defense, economic or political union."

Kefauver emphasized the "exploratory" nature of the proposed conference. Mindful of critics who say the end result might be a world government in which the United States would have to surrender some of its sovereignty, the Senator said:

"There is certainly no commitment to any action which would decrease the powers of the Government of the United States."

Atomic Scientist Harold C. Urey, of the University of Chicago, supported the plan in his testimony. He said "world government will come" and "we should try to see to it that it is a free and democratic one."

Elmo Roper, public opinion analyst, said that unity among the free nations and standardization of their weapons "would save the taxpayer billions."

Mrs. Chase S. Osborn, widow of a Michigan Governor, said some patriotic groups have a misconception that the Atlantic Union idea approves world government.

Sen. William Langer (R-N. D.) told Kefauver he was for him. Langer is a member of the Foreign Relations Committee. Another member, Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.), said he sympathized with "the peaceful objectives of your resolution." However, Morse questioned whether it would be wise at this particular time to call a conference from which Communist nations would be excluded.

Clarence K. Streit, one of the founders of the Atlantic Union idea, said Russia has been impressed by "the first substantial progress in several years toward a stronger Atlantic community"—the rearming of West Germany. He said that is one of the reasons that right now there is "all smiles."

Backed by 15 Senators

Kefauver Presses Resolution For Atlantic Union Parley

WASHINGTON, July 25 (A.—) Sen. Estes Kefauver, D., Tenn., said today he was convinced a proposed exploratory conference on Atlantic union would help the free world in negotiations with Russia.

Sen. Kefauver and several prominent private citizens appeared before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee in support of a resolution asking that President Eisenhower invite other North Atlantic nations to such a parley.

The resolution, sponsored by Sen. Kefauver and fourteen other Senators, proposes that the President invite the six other nations which sponsored the North Atlantic treaty to name delegates to the conference along with representatives of this country.

The six are Canada, Britain, France, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg. The conference also could invite delegations from other democracies.

"The delegates would 'explore' and 'report to what extent their peoples might further unite within the framework of the United Nations, and agree to form, federally or otherwise, a defense, economic and political union," the resolution stated.

Sen. Kefauver emphasized, "There is no commitment in this resolution other than to call for such exploration and recommendations by a body selected from the peoples of our Democracy. There is certainly no commitment to any action which would decrease the powers of the government of the United States."

Any action which "The American people might consider wise" as a result of the recommendations of the conference would be taken only after "full Congressional debate and approval," Sen. Kefauver said.

"We all are delighted with the apparent lessening of tension as a result of the Big Four meeting," Sen. Kefauver said. "But the fact remains that the real peace, real security can only come from the free peoples standing together. If the Communists prove to be insincere, only by unity can we preserve the peace."

Sen. Kefauver added: "We need now a meeting after the summit—a meeting of the sovereigns—a meeting of the peoples themselves from whom, under the democratic theory of government, all power derives."

STATEMENT BEFORE THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE
July 26, 1955 Hearing on Atlantic Union Resolution Senate
Concurrent Resolution 12, by Gardner Osborn, Past President of the American Coalition and Past Vice President
General of the National Society, Sons of the American Revolution.

Mr. Chairman, I am here today representing The American Coalition of Patriotic Societies of which I was President in 1952. The Coalition was incorporated in 1928 to help perpetuate the basic traditions of this Republic, to advance its general welfare and to help guard the security of our great nation. The Coalition is non-partisan, including, as it does, 100 constituent organizations with a combined membership of over two million dedicated Americans.

The Coalition has never sought tax-exemption as its policy has been to testify at Congressional Hearings and to be free to present the views of its membership upon any and all occasions without conflict with the government restraints correctly imposed upon tax-exempt organizations. In 1950, the American Coalition in Convention assembled adopted a Resolution expressing its opposition to The Atlantic Union Resolution introduced July 26th, 1949, identified as Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 57. Similar action was taken in respect to Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 4 introduced January 15th, 1951.

The Coalition has, over the years, endeavored to document the reasoning underlying each and every Resolution. This is possible because of the distinguished personnel of our Board of Governors and our Resolutions Committee which include former Generals, Admirals, intelligence officers, and members of the United States Congress. One of the Coalition constituent organizations is a Research Corporation specializing in security problems of the country. Thus, a wealth of documentary records, as well as high level policy advice, was available to the Coalition in considering the Atlantic Union Senate Concurrent Resolution 12 introduced February 9th, 1955.

It is our considered judgment that the proposed "exploratory convention" would result in a "report" for World Government that would greatly embarrass Congress, as the President is requested to issue the invitation. I have here copies of many excerpts from an address entitled, "The Goal is Government of All the World" delivered by Elmo Roper, Treasurer of the Atlantic Union Committee. Following is one typical statement; "And in not too many years from now, I hope that we will attain One World in reality." From page 4 of my photostatic copy of this address, distributed by The Atlantic Union Committee, I quote the following; "These Governments would merge into a single Atlantic Federal Union. Such a nation would have the right to conduct foreign relations, maintain armed forces, issue currency, regulate commerce and communications between states in the Union, and grant Union citizenship. The Union must have the power to tax and to uphold its own Bill of Rights." I urge your Committee to study the implications of this amazing address.

The Atlantic Union Committee published another document I have here entitled, "20 Questions on Atlantic Union" which deserves careful analysis by those concerned with the preservation of our Constitutional Government. The following excerpts are from page 3; "We would transfer to the Union Government certain definitely limited portions of powers presently delegated to our National Government." Proponents of Atlantic Union have, however, pointed out that in existing federal unions, like the United States, the people have delegated to the Union government powers to establish a common foreign policy, a common defense, a common free market, a common currency, a common postal system, a common citizenship, and also a sufficient power of taxation to implement these other powers." Lastly, I quote from page 16; "By the process of voluntary growth, the union could at some time in the indefinite future develop into a free world government." Gentlemen, I have restrained myself in quoting briefly from this illuminating pamphlet.

I would like at this time to submit two pages, single spaced, quoting twenty-three excerpts from the 1939 edition of "UNION NOW" written by Clarence Streit, a member of the Board of Governors of the Atlantic Union Committee. On page 175, Mr. Streit makes the following statement: "This book is concerned above all with showing why we democrats of the world must organize our inter-state government with ourselves instead of our states as the equal units." On page 203 appears the following revealing proposal; "On the balance, I am inclined to favor Unionists organizing themselves into a World Unionist Party, or at least forming some common organization to coordinate their campaign in the various democracies. The first step in this direction could be the convoking of a congress of Unionists from the fifteen democracies to form a common center and formulate a concrete program." Gentlemen, this has a familiar ring.

~~Mr. Streit's book presents in detail an "Illustrative Constitution" (pages 243-251).~~

I wish to read a few excerpts appearing on pages 245 and 246: "(1) The Union (Atlantic Union) shall have the right to make and execute all laws necessary and proper for the securing of the rights of man and of the Union and of the States as set forth in this Constitution, and to lay and collect income taxes, and duties, imposts and excises, provided these be uniform throughout the Union, and incur and pay debt....."; "(2) The Union shall have the sole right to grant citizenship in the Union and regulate immigration from outside states and from non-self-governing territory of the Union."

"...(b) Treat with foreign governments, provide for the Union's defense, raise, maintain and control standing land, sea, and air forces, make war and peace...punish treason."

"(d) Coin and issue money."

The late Justice Owen J. Roberts, President for many years of the Atlantic Union Committee, addressed the 37th Annual Meeting of the American Society of International Law on May 1st, 1943, and was quoted in great detail by the Philadelphia Inquirer (May 2nd issue), photostatic copy of this story being available for your records. The caption reads; "World State is Urged by Roberts as Means of Maintaining Peace." While all the direct quotations should be studied with the utmost thoroughness, the key paragraph reads as follows; "Must there not be a fundamental framework of government, to which the people of each constituent nation surrender such portion of their nation's sovereign prerogative as is essential to a world order." The news story, written by Alexander Kendrick of the Inquirer Washington Bureau, began with the following paragraph; "An international government, with police power over every individual citizen in the nations belonging to it - instead of merely the national governments as such - is the only way to keep peace after this war, Supreme Court Justice Owen J. Roberts, of Philadelphia, declared tonight." I regret the necessity of introducing this document subsequent to the death of Justice Roberts but feel it is an integral part of our record of the organized promotion for World Government that is one of our principal concerns regarding the Resolution under consideration.

On Page 171 of the printed report of the Hearing regarding the Nomination of John Marshall Harlan appears the following statement by Senator William Jenner; "Well, let me give you, as I understand it, some of the objectives sustained by Justice Roberts of the Atlantic Union; (Such a union must be built on, first, a common citizenship; second, a common economic and military policy; third, a common currency; fourth, a free exchange of goods and services among federation members.) Now, that is Justice Roberts' statements on what are the proposals of the Atlantic Union."

A variation of this World Government movement was reported by The Kansas City Star, December 13, 1954, in an Ottawa, Canada, story the headline of which read "URGE SUPER NATO 'Atlantic Community' Would Merge Economic and Foreign Policies of the West." This news dispatch contained the following four key paragraphs. (1) "Creation of a super 'Atlantic Community' agency to merge the economic, defense, and foreign policies of the United States with other countries will be recommended to members of the North Atlantic Treaty Council in Paris this week." (2) "'This is no time for half-hearted measures' the statement declares. 'While welcoming the progress made toward European union, we believe that nothing less than an effectively integrated Atlantic Community, which would include German defense forces, will in the end adequately meet the challenge of the times. Defense in today's terms extends beyond military requirements and into the political, economic and cultural aspects of our lives'." (3) "It calls for 'the development of NATO as a central agency to co-ordinate the political, trade and defense policies of the member nations' and the establishment of an advisory 'Atlantic Assembly'." (4) "NATO already has authority to adopt the proposed program, it is pointed out in the petition, under Article Two, commonly called the Canadian clause, which provides for economic development of the member countries." In concluding my reference to this news dispatch, I might add that the Atlantic Union Committee devoted two full pages to this proposal in its Atlantic Union News.

An extreme illustration of the extent to which the World Government Movement will go is available in the Chart issued in London in 1952 by The World Association of Parliamentarians for World Government. This Chart divides the world into 51 regions and assigns to each a Director and Troops with the stipulation that each region is thus controlled by a foreign power. The United States is divided into four sections to be administered by France, Sweden, Spain and the USSR. I place in your hands the complete exhibit in question. There are many such well organized organizations in various parts of the world dedicated to exploiting just such an "exploratory convention" as proposed by the Resolution under consideration.

Mr. Chairman, the above constitutes but a limited review of our documentation pointing to the underlying forces for complete World Government that would move in force to infiltrate an "exploratory convention". Much of this movement is out in the open where he who wishes to read may gain a clear picture. Just imagine what secret and subversive influences would become engaged to destroy the guarantees we have inherited from our forebears in the Constitution of the United States, and particularly in its first ten amendments known as the Bill of Rights.

It would be presumptuous of me to remind any Senator that he has taken a solemn oath to support the Constitution of the United States. But I think it is important to recall that this Constitution guarantees to each of the States a republican form of government...and further guarantees the sovereignty of each of these States. The American Coalition urges each member of this distinguished Committee to make a personal study of the documents referred to in this statement and an objective consideration of the implied threats to the Constitution of the United States completed 168 years ago on September 17th, 1789.

In concluding, I submit copies of the Resolution unanimously adopted by one of the constituent member organizations of the American Coalition; namely, the National Society, Sons of the American Revolution, meeting in Convention in Chicago, Illinois, May 24th, 1955. The concluding paragraph reads as follows; "BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution in Congress assembled call upon their Senators and Representatives to vote against this Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 12 introduced in the Senate which paves the way to the surrender of our independence and sovereignty."

THEY STATED THAT THEIR NEW YORK HEADQUARTERS WAS THAT OF THE UNITED WORLD FEDERALISTS..

PEACE ACCORDING TO THEIR PLAN .. WORLD FEDERATION .. OR ONE WORLD GOVERNMENT UNDER THE U.N. WOULD BE MAINTAINED BY A PERMANENT POLICE FORCE ... NO COUNTRY (EXCEPT RUSSIA) WOULD BE POLICED BY THEIR OWN SOLDIERS... THE USA WOULD BE UNDER THE CONTROL OF POLICE FROM FOREIGN COUNTRIES .. PEACE ???

THE ATLANTIC UNION RESOLUTION

(Senate Concurrent Resolution 12, introduced by Sen. Kefauver, Feb. 9, 1955)

Five paragraphs of preamble, then:

"RESOLVED by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That the President is requested to invite the other democracies which sponsored the North Atlantic Treaty to name delegates, including members of their principal political parties to meet in a convention with similarly appointed delegates from the United States and from such other democracies as the convention may invite, to explore and to report to what extent their peoples might further unite within the framework of the United Nations, and agree to form, federally or otherwise, a defense, economic and political union."

Increasingly, as the United Nations abdicates and "Turns Its Efforts Over To The Diplomats..." (headline Post, D.C. Feb. 15, 1955), those internationalists who advocate "strengthening the United Nations" for world government, are turning to support of so-called Atlantic Union - a permanent political, economic and military alliance of the North Atlantic Treaty signers - as a step toward world government. (See hearings on North Atlantic Pact ratification May 1949 for testimony of Justice Roberts President of AUC and Mr. Will Clayton V. Pres. that Atlantic Union Committee is a world government movement. See Streit's UNION NOW, for ILLUSTRATIVE CONSTITUTION.)

The Hearings on the Nomination of John Marshall Harlan February 24-25, 1955 p. 130 gives list of Congressional sponsors in 1951 of the Atlantic Union Resolution. CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION SUBTERFUGE

It is time to put an end to the subterfuge of calling a Constitutional Convention to discuss ways and means of selling out the sovereignty of the United States. This resolution indicates the political philosophy of its supporters.

The signatories of the North Atlantic Treaty are the United States, Canada, Belgium, Denmark, France, Iceland, Italy, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Norway, Portugal and the United Kingdom, (treaty signed Apr. 4, 1949.) In February 1952 Greece and Turkey were added. To call these nations all "democracies" is to assume a false premise. The United States is a Constitutional Republic. The word "democracies" is not defined in the resolution. France is a Republic in name only with a third of her Chamber of Deputies Communist; Portugal is a dictatorship; Italy has socialist controls and a rich and powerful Communist Party and so on. How is an economic union to be attained among countries, some of which are committed to free enterprise and others to socialism - fruit of the same tree as Communism? Only by U.S. acceptance of a planned economy or requiring many of the others to abandon it, can Atlantic Union be achieved. For the United States to accept planned economy is unthinkable...if we can prevent it.. For the United States to force others to abandon theirs - is impossible!

World State Is Urged By Roberts as Means Of Maintaining Peace

By ALEXANDER KENDRICK
Inquirer Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON, May 1.—An international government, with police power over every individual citizen in the nations belonging to it—instead of over merely the national governments as such—is the only way to keep the peace after this war, Supreme Court Justice Owen J. Roberts, of Philadelphia, declared tonight.

Justice Roberts, principal speaker at the 37th annual meeting of the American Society of International Law, called on the Nation's leaders in government, law, education, and political science—who made up his audience—to "arouse and enliven public sentiment" in support of a supra-national post-war organization which would in effect be a United States of the World.

MOST DRASTIC PLAN YET

The Roberts proposal, going far beyond any other post-war blueprint yet offered, envisioned a world organization which would bear the same relation to the various nations as the present Federal Government of the United States bears to the individual States.

Under such circumstances, the jurist declared, the individual citizen's loyalty and responsibility to the international government would stand over his loyalty to his own country, just as now a citizen's loyalty to the United States stands over his loyalty to his own particular State.

Exactly as a federal government has, so the new World Government would have an executive to administer its laws, a Representative Assembly to legislate, and a Judiciary to settle disputes not only between nations, but also between citizens and the international government, and between citizens and their own national governments.

All other means of keeping the peace have failed, Justice Roberts emphasized.

"We have learned that leagues, treaties, agreements, voluntary submission of disputes to a world court, fall short of reaching the goal. What other recourse is there?"

The American experience as a federation of States points the way, he added.

'SOVEREIGNTY' FATAL

"It is not plain that so long as national sovereignty remains absolute, no means will exist for preventing the abnegation of the obligations of international good faith."

"Must there not be a fundamental framework of government, to which the people of each constituent nation surrender such portion of their nation's sovereign prerogative as is essential to a world order; that each nation be bound by certain agreed rules so that no single nation and no group of nations can for any reason, or for no reason, assert its or their unbridled will by resort to arms?"

The international law which he proposed, Justice Roberts said, must bind the individual citizens of the separate nations, in the same sense that the law of the United States binds every citizen of this Nation.

POLICING VERSUS WAR

"The police force of any government necessarily must enforce the law of that government against its citizens—not against the state or nation to which those citizens belong."

"Enforcement as against a citizen is a police function; enforcement against state or nation as an entity is war."

The Supreme Court Justice spoke at a dinner ending a two-day meeting of the American Society of International Law.

On the same program were Hugh S. Gibson, former U. S. Ambassador to Belgium and Brazil; Dr. Alexander Louden, Netherlands Ambassador; and Major General Emil Bethouart, head of the Giraud French military mission here.

OPPOSITION TO POLITICAL UNION OF ATLANTIC TREATY NATIONS

WHEREAS there was introduced in the Senate of the United States on February 9, 1955 by Senator Kefauver, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 12 which states: "RESOLVED by the Senate (the House of Representatives Concurring), That the President is requested to invite the other democracies which sponsored the North Atlantic Treaty to name delegates, including members of their principal political parties, to meet in a convention with similarly appointed delegates from the United States and from such other democracies as the convention may invite, to explore and to report to what extent their peoples might further unite within the framework of the United Nations, and agree to form, federally or otherwise, a defense, economic and political union." And,

WHEREAS this is another form of the same proposal for Atlantic Union introduced in former sessions of Congress by Senator Kefauver; and

WHEREAS the proponents of this resolution aim at expanding the present military alliance of NATO into a federal political union which requires the surrender of basic powers of our own President, the Congress and the States, to the Atlantic Union and makes drastic changes in our form of Government; and

WHEREAS the calling of delegates by our Government to explore the possibilities of a surrender of powers to form a super political union places our government in the position of favoring such a union, and

WHEREAS a number of resolutions of like import and wording have been introduced into the House of Representatives by both Democrats and Republicans,

BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution in Congress assembled call upon their Senators and Representatives to vote against this Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 12 introduced in the Senate which paves the way to the surrender of our independence and sovereignty.

- 112 "The provision for ultimate universality..."
- 114 "A world government whose principle of freedom not only allows but encourages the United States to retain its republic and Great Britain its monarchy could not refuse Russia its soviet."
- 115 "When, and only when, this world democratic government is created may one look forward confidently to the end of absolutism among the German, Italian and Japanese people."
"When this world democratic government is founded they will know that only by first establishing their rights as men can they gain the equality that really counts with them as with everyone---"
- 174 "There is no better way for us each to know how much freedom each would gain by making his sovereign union a sub-division of our Union now." (Note capital "U")
- 175 "This book is concerned above all with showing why we democrats of the world must organize our inter-state government with ourselves instead of our states as the equal units."
- 176 "When democracies have agreed to turn to the union principle there will remain plenty of time for the practical problem to hold first place."
"Secondly, we should keep in mind during the coming discussion that...it is applied on a world scale and provides world control."

- 185 "WHAT OF INDIA?" (Section heading.)
- 196 "There can be no more dynamic policy than the policy of freeing man - freeing all the incalculable powers of the individual in his two billion fold variety." (This theme is developed countless times in the book with brilliant skill.)
- 197 "...the peoples of these Thirteen American States secured their liberties better by 'sacrificing' the sovereignty of their states to that of the United States." (This theme is developed endlessly.)

- "The first essential (as a result of World War I.) was to establish a living institution that could bring out the great truth that freedom of man had reached the point where it required law and order and government to be organized on a world scale. This institution did Wilson create... the League of Nations."
- 199 "You cannot possibly place the sovereignty of the nation above the sovereignty of man without strengthening the nation at the expense of the citizen."
- 201 "Does our freedom as individuals still require a policy of national sovereignty toward each other - toward the old democracies...?"
"Since individual freedom so far has gained by every application of the principle of union, can it lose by further application of that principle, — by union of unions of the free?" (This theme of USA Constitutions is hammered endlessly.)
"The time for world-wide union of the free for freedom's sake - is not now the time? (Note odd phrasing at end of question; implies answer of "Yes".)"
- 203 "On balance, I am inclined to favor Unionists organizing themselves into a World Unionist Party, or at least forming some common organization to coordinate their campaign in the various democracies. The first step in this direction could be the convoking of a congress of Unionists from the fifteen democracies to form a common center and formulate a concrete program."
- 204 "...he will soon have world Union, and its greater rights for men." (Copy several paragraphs on "POSTCARD PLEBISCITE" section.)
- 205 "It is easier for the democrat to move his government to Union than for the raindrop to spin a turbine."
- 228 "Like the means of uniting men that preceded it, the modern dogma of nationalism is but an idea of men, no more, no less. It is a combination of the patriotism of blood and the patriotism of land..."
- 234 "It was these pioneers of Connecticut who were among the first to sacrifice the sovereignty of the state and ratify the Constitution."
- 304 "After all, are not your freedom, your prosperity, your security, your children at stake as well as mine?" Is not the problem of world government your individual problem as well as mine? Can I alone organize the world for you any more than you for me?"

EXCERPTS QUOTED FROM

"THE GOAL IS GOVERNMENT OF ALL THE WORLD"

DISTRIBUTED BY THE ATLANTIC UNION COMMITTEE IN 1948

In this address, made to the Montclair, (New Jersey) Forum, Mr. Elmo Roper, public opinion analyst and Treasurer of the Atlantic Union Committee says:

I judge all moves in the international arena on the basis of whether they are leading toward government of all the world, with peace, and freedom from fear, freedom from want, freedom of speech, freedom of religion for all.

Page 1: FEDERAL UNION - THE WAY TO ONE WORLD. Four years ago the United Nations was born. A year ago the Marshall Plan passed in Congress. Recently, the North Atlantic Security Pact was signed in Washington. Next year I hope the first constitutional convention of the Atlantic Union will be going on. And in not too many years from now, I hope that we will attain One World in reality.

Page 2: But when we plan for anything, when we map out a goal, we usually shoot for more than we can get right away. And, today, if we plan for world peace through a world state, we must not give up the idea of a world state simply because some nations will not go along with it at the moment.

At this point, let me confess my own bias so you'll know how much to discount the balance of what I have to say. First, I'd like to say that the ultimate goal is not a government of a part of the world, however large or powerful or compatible that part might be. The goal is a government of all the world.

Page 3: We must start building toward One World now, today, positively, with a clear head and with a firm faith that if we can lay one stone in the foundation we will be able to lay more stones there, and, eventually, build a structure of peace.

Page 4: These governments would merge into a single Atlantic Federal Union. Such a nation would have the right to conduct foreign relations, maintain armed forces, issue currency, regulate commerce and communications between states in the Union, and grant Union citizenship. The Union must have the power to tax and to uphold its own Bill of Rights.

Page 8: It would continue to expand the acceptance of these principles, and would finally expand its membership until it included all the peoples of the world who believed in them regardless of how much they differed in other respects - as our Mississippi, for example, sometimes differs in other respects from our Vermont.

Page 9: But the fact of the matter is that we must start to build some sort of a world government now. And the nations which would most likely go along with the idea would be the civil liberty nations.

Page 11: Such a Union would automatically solve a great many of these disputes, since a single parliament would legislate for all of the states involved, and a single judicial system would make the single code of law clear and a single executive branch would carry out the acts of the Union. And a single police force would maintain order between states in conflict.

Page 12: It is abundantly clear that the citizens of the United States, not the government of the United States, are sovereign, in the last analysis. The citizens put governmental authority where they want it.

By creating the new union, we, the citizens, would merely transfer to our delegates in the Union some of the power we now delegate to our representatives in Washington.

-----but the citizens would extend rather than weaken their sovereignty. Each of us would retain our United States citizenship, and in addition we would gain a more powerful and freer status - becoming also citizens of the Union of the Free.

Page 15: But for all of the difficulties and the traditional jealousies and stumbling blocks, the unity of Western Europe is being forged. It is being forged really into a basic unity of the Western World - a Union of the Atlantic nations.

Page 17: But the Atlantic Pact need not be our last effort toward greater unity. It can be converted into one more sound and important step toward world peace. It can be one of the most positive moves in the direction of One World. For it provides an additional part of the house of Federal Union.

As I see it, that next practical step is the formation of an Atlantic Union of the Free, which will expand the existing cooperation under the European Recovery Program and the Atlantic Pact into a basis for building a common political structure.

Page 18: For it becomes clear that the first step toward World Government cannot be completed until we have advanced on four fronts; the economic, the military, the political, and the social. By chance, the economic came first, and that was a very positive step. The military has now come next, and that is a necessary defensive step. The political must come next, and the social will follow the political organization.

Page 20: On this Atlantic Union Committee, Federal Union people, like Justice Roberts, and World Federalist people like Will Clayton, and other world government advocates have joined together in what I hope can become a common effort to see one very practical step toward world government taken. Atlantic Union is not just a possibility. It is bordering on being a reality.
